Call for nominations - IAUP J. Michael Adams Leadership and Service Award

Established in 2013 by the IAUP Board of Directors (BOD) upon positive recommendation of the Executive Committee and a committee appointed by President Neal King and chaired by Dr. Jim Roach, this memorial award is to be presented at each triennial conference to an outstanding individual who exemplifies in her or his leadership and service in some aspect of international tertiary education the values and vision of both IAUP and the late J. Michael Adams.

It being the duty – per section 2.3.b.4 of the Byelaws - of the BOD to “set the conditions for the granting of Awards on behalf of the Charity,” the following shall be the process for determining this award’s recipient each triennium: please find all details at: <https://www.iaup.org/awards/adams-award/>

If you have a good candidate that responds to the profile (details at: <https://www.iaup.org/awards/adams-award/>) please send the name, one-paragraph short bio of accomplishments, and contact information for the individual proposed. This should be sent to Dr. Gerald Reisinger, Secretary General IAUP, 2017-2020 at secretarygeneral@iaup.org Nominations should be sent between January 26 and April 15, 2019 in order to be considered by the IAUP Board of Directors.

The IAUP Board of Directors will determine the individual who will receive the award. We thank you in advance for your nomination, if you have any.
