Recovery and Transformation: Innovation and Inclusion

Overview of the Triennium

The 2021-2024 Triennium of the International Association of University Presidents (IAUP) focused on recovery and transformation in higher education, promoting innovation and inclusion while supporting strategic leadership. In the current context, IAUP aimed to help institutions build resilience, overcome disruptions, and adapt to new demands by providing spaces to share insights, analyze challenges, and discuss trends, contributing to a more sustainable future for global higher education.
